e bonds that Mr. Walson gave when he took office are said to be one in favor of the state for $173.800 and another in favor of the county for $174.800 a rotal of $445.000. Unless the collector furnishes the same hond within 20 days, he is, in the opinion of legal advisors of the commissioners, who quoted from the statutes at the meeting automatically suspended from office. In the meantime Mr. Watson has, by order of the court, been barred from the performance of further duties as county tax collector, although he be held responsible for all business up to date.

Who Will Tecrive Liquor Money?

Some discussion was raised by the commissioners on the onery of index Pool as to show the liquor livenses, due after Jily 10, would be payable, but no definite action was taken to specially provide for the receipt of the payments, should a collector for the county not be on hand. It was stated that there will be more than 100 andoons to bar licenses and that the sum for each will be $561.50. Auditor Masquelette said that the record for July, 1815, showed the receipts of the office were about $25,900 and that they should be approximately the same this menth. The Herald made every effort this afternoon, following the meeting of the commissioners, to locate Mr. Watson for a statement.
